CZAR NICHOLAS' RESCRIPT

The Russian Ruler Addresses the Defenders of Port Arthur.

Peace, Honor and Undying Memory the Portion of Those Who Fell in the Gallant Defense.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 16.—Emperor Nicholas has addressed the following rescript to the army and navy: "Port Arthur has passed into the hands of the enemy. During 11 months the fight had been going on in its defense. More than seven months its noble defenders had been cut off from the rest of the world. Without any positive assurance of relief, they continued to fight and did everything in their power to check the progress of the enemy, sparing neither life nor heart's blood to uphold the honor of the Russian people. "Russia, with pride and admiration, followed each move in the contest. The whole world was astonished at their gallantry, but daily their ranks were thinned, their powers of resistance diminished, and, under repeated assaults by the enemy, they were obliged to give way. "Peace, honor and undying memory will be the portion of you Russians who have fallen in the defense of Port Arthur. Far from home, you have laid your bodies upon alien soil—a sacrifice to the dictates of your own honor and the demands of your emperor. "Peace and honor be your portion. Always will you be so held in our hearts and memory. "Honor to the living. May God restore you to health and strength and give you patience to face this disaster with which you are confronted. "My gallant troops and sailors! Do not let this sorrow dismay you. Our enemy is strong and daring. This fight against them occurs 7,000 miles from our homes, but Russia is powerful. In the thousand years of its existence, there have been still heavier trials, worse and more threatening dangers, but Russia ever arose from trial with renewed force and strength. Do not let your souls be troubled by lack of success and heavy losses. Russian strength grows with adversity. "With all Russia I join in the belief that the time is coming when God will give strength to our glorious army and may to arise and break the forces of the enemy. NICHOLAS."

CZAR'S GOVERNMENT BEGINS TO TOPPLE

Fears That a Revolutionary Reign of Terror Long Expected Is At Hand.

FROM ALL PARTS OF THE EMPIRE COME REPORTS OF TROUBLE

Trouble at Home May Mean the End of the War With Japan—Many Assassinations, Incidents of the Killings of Police, Tax Collectors and Other Minor Officials.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 14.—Many indications are at hand that the revolutionary reign of terror so long expected and anticipated with the deepest fear is commencing. Since the fall of Port Arthur, this feeling of unrest and dissatisfaction with the bureaucratic form of government has been more pronounced, and it is quite possible that this reverse to Russian arms may provoke the spark which will explode the magazine of pent-up feelings in peasant circles. Not that the fall of Port Arthur itself would be sufficient to precipitate such an untoward event as a revolution, but there are a hundred and one reasons for the dissatisfaction.

The people are clamoring, and have been demanding for a long time reforms which will give them greater freedom. For a time after the calling of the zemstvos, there was evidence that perhaps some of these reforms were to be granted. The czar, however, instead of meeting the popular desire for reforms with open cooperation, has now postponed the granting of any genuine changes for the better, and the camel's back has been broken.

From all parts of the empire come reports of political assassinations, including the taking of the lives of police, detectives, tax collectors and other minor officials. Especially in the central and southern provinces in these provinces 56 political assassinations have been reported within the past fortnight.

Just what the result of this incipient uprising will be, time alone will tell. In many quarters it is felt that one of the greatest and far-reaching results must be the ending of the war.

It would be impossible for Russia with her hands more than filled with trouble at home, to attempt to further carry on the war against Japan. The anti-war feeling has been growing stronger ever since the first reverse suffered by the czar's troops in Korea and Port Arthur. Now that the strong hold is in Japanese hands, and no material advantage has been gained at any point on land, the position of the war party is fast becoming untenable.

Can't Go Down Into His Pocket. London, Jan. 14.—The Exchange Telegraph Co. has a dispatch from Copenhagen which quotes a telegram from St. Petersburg to the Politiken asserting that Czar Nicholas has contributed 100,000,000 roubles from his private fortune toward the equipment of a third Russian squadron and 50,000,000 roubles toward the equipment of a fourth.

A General Kills Four Children. St. Petersburg, Jan. 14.—It is reported that a Russian General named Tschetyrkin, at Pledostia, reviewing troops, became exasperated at people crowding to see, and with his sword killed four children.

Russia's Charges Against China. St. Petersburg, Jan. 14.—The Russian government has issued a circular to the powers charging repeated violations of Chinese neutrality and citing cases in support of the claim that the empire is powerless to fulfill its obligations. The circular concludes that Russia will be compelled to act in its own interest.

Gov. Adams Will Remove Bell. Denver, Col., Jan. 16.—Gov. Adams will remove Adj. and Brig.-Gen. Bell. Bell was Peabody's military general and his appointment does not expire until next April.

Has Stood the Test 25 Years. The old, original GROVE'S Tasteless Chili Tonic. You know what you are taking. It is iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure, no pay. 50c.

Mr. Metcalfe, the editor of Life, is to be barred from all New York theaters, even if he is willing to buy a ticket. At the time of the Iroquois fire, he printed a cartoon for which he was sued for $100,000 by Klav & Erlanger. They lost the suit and for this reason the theatrical managers have decided that he cannot enter their places of amusement.

ROLLER SKATING REVIVED. Sport Neglected for Twenty Years Has Again Become Popular in America.

Forty or fifty roller-skating rinks have been built and opened to the public in New England, New Jersey and other states within the last year, declares the New York Sun. All are well patronized and their promoters believe that this sport, neglected for 20 years, will again become popular. In the late '70s and early '80s roller-skating almost attained the dignity of a national amusement. No person was too old or too young to use the rinks. The hockey games, endurance races and exhibitions of fancy skating arranged for rink owners attracted big audiences for four or five years before the popular appetite was satisfied. Then and almost in a moment roller skating fell into disfavor. Only children clung to it, and on them it has never lost its hold. This sudden loss of popularity was due simply to the fact that the pastime was worked to death.

At a meeting of the women of the Humane Society, they ousted Rozier Meigs from the presidency on the ground of cruelty to a squirrel, which it is said he roasted to death by setting the tree on fire in which it had taken refuge. Mrs. John T. Ryan has been elected president. Meigs denies the charge and says he will organize a Humane Society composed entirely of men.

To-Day's Burdens.

To every one of us there come some time when the whole tenor of our life is changed. We stand up on some eminence, and look back and see the familiar faces and the familiar places, remembering all the careless joy that belonged to those days that are past; and then we say, All is ended for us. What ever the future brings, it cannot recall what is past. Our friends of long ago have passed away; the old thoughts that filled our minds can never satisfy us again. Then we look forward, and see stretching before us a new kind of life, dreary it may be, lonely and unfamiliar.
